Poffertje Grill (Electric)

Who can resist the temptation of hot dutch pancakes with lemon and sugar, or jam and cream, or perhaps classic maple syrup?

Poffertjes are a popular and profitable treat that you can offer fresh with the help of the Neumarker electric grill. Being electric they can sit on the bench virtually anywhere allowing you to cook fresh to order within minutes.

Separate thermostats and switches to control two halves of the cooking area for busy and slower times.

Stainless steel base with separated grill plate. Grill made of heavy cast to ensure constant heat delivery and maximise output.

Available in two sizes, 50 and 100 trough units.

Batter dispensers also available

100 trough unit

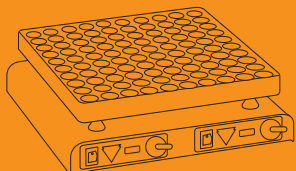

50 trough unit
